

GROUNDNUT PRODUCTION

Email address: SalomonL@arc.agric.za
Fax number: +27(0)12 430 5814
Course coordinator: Loureine Salomon
Coordinator contact: +27(0)18 299 6333

LOCATION: ARC-GRAIN CROPS INSTITUTE, Potchefstroom, RSA
SCHEDULED DATES: Upon request
COURSE FEE: Request a quote (Minimum 20 people)
COURSE DURATION: Two (2) Days
BOOKS/MANUALS: Groundnut always tops; Groundnuts diseases and pests

COURSE DESCRIPTION & OUTLINE

To provide basic skills and knowledge on production and disease management of groundnuts

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Soil types and soil potential
- Fertilization requirements
- Cultivation practises and cultivar choice
- Crop rotation
- Pest and Disease management practises
- Association of weeds and nematodes in
- Crop production
- Safe way of using agro-chemicals
- Harvesting of crop

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Choosing a suitable site
- Soil preparation and Fertilization requirements
- Pest & Disease management
- Production practises of groundnuts

WHO SHOULD ATTEND? : Extension staff, NGO's, beginner farmers, community groups

DELIVERY MODE: Presentation, Practical – where groundnut fields are available

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS: Read and write